TO THE MEDIA

The Salisbury State University Sports Information Office hopes that this year's edition of the Sea Gull preseason football guide proves to be useful in your coverage of the SSU football team. The following information should help to make your job easier.

REQUESTS
In order to make sure that all of your needs are met during your visit, please contact the Sports Information Office prior to your visit so that appropriate preparations can be made.

CREDENTIALS
Please contact the Sports Information Office prior to game day to make arrangements for credentials. Scouting passes for press box seating will be arranged upon availability after meeting the needs of the working press.

STADIUM
Sea Gull Stadium is located on Wayne Street, one block east of the Maggs Physical Activities Center and the SSU campus. Coming from the Maggs Center, cross U.S. Route 13 on Bateman Street, go one block, then turn right onto Wayne Street. Free parking is available with easy access to the stadium.

SERVICES
Pre-game information including rosters, lineups, game notes, program, and current statistics will be provided in the press box. Complete statistics are kept during the game and provided at halftime and following the game. Final statistics will be available approximately 20 minutes following the game's conclusion.

INTERVIEWS
Salisbury State coaches and players will be available for interviews approximately 10 minutes after all games. Any requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made in advance to the Sports Information Office so that the student's academic or athletic schedule is not disrupted.

RADIO POLICY
Permission to broadcast games should be obtained at least two weeks in advance by writing the Sports Information Office. Arrangements should be coordinated through the C & P Telephone business office, by calling 1-800-492-5388 from within Maryland, or 301-699-6333 from out-of-state. The SSU Sports Information Office should be used as the on-campus contact.

SEA GULL FOOTBALL -- 1990 Preseason 'Thumbnail Sketch'

The Salisbury State University football team that eventually takes to the field for the 1990 season opener on September 8 will be dramatically different from the squad that ended the 1989 campaign with a 2-6-1 record. Leading the restructuring will be a new head coach, Joseph Rotellini, who was an assistant coach on the Sea Gull team that advanced to the Division III championship game in 1986. Rotellini returns to Salisbury after serving as the assistant head coach at Shippensburg State University for the past three seasons.

With a new coach in 1990 comes a new offensive and defensive philosophy. The Gull offense will change from the Wing-T attack of past seasons to a Multiple Offense, and will feature new faces throughout the lineup. Among Rotellini's preseason objectives will be finding a starting quarterback as neither of last year's starting signal-callers, Blake Bender nor Robert Butler, are back. The coaching staff will also spend the preseason searching for replacements for last year's top rusher, Donald Washington (777 yds), and top receiver, TE Duncan McLean (22 rec). In all, three of last year's top four rushers have departed as have the top four receivers.

Rotellini's immediate goals defensively, where the Gulls will sport a new look - the Multiple 40 - are to solidify the line and linebacking corps. Last year's leading tackler, Mike Voorhees (63 stops, 3.5 sacks) and fourth-leading tackler, J.R. Harmon (52 tackles), are among the returnees along the front eight. Last year's top interceptor, Che Abdullah (4), is among those back in the secondary.

Senior punter Bill Schmidt, who finished among the nation's leader's in '89 with a 38.9 yards/kick average, returns to handle the punting duties and could double once again as the team's placekicker as well. Schmidt converted five of eight field goals last season and finished second on the team in scoring with 27 points.

Joseph Rotellini
Head Coach

"I'm extremely excited about the opportunity being given to me by Salisbury State University, and I regard this as one of the premier jobs in Division III." Those were the words of Joe Rotellini as he was introduced on March 4, 1990 as SSU's new head football coach.

Rotellini, 35, is the fifth head coach in Salisbury State's 18-year football history, but he is no stranger to the Sea Gull program. Although the move to Salisbury presents Rotellini with his first head coaching position, he brings impressive credentials from 12 years as an assistant coach, including two years as an assistant at SSU under Mike McGlinchey. The Sea Gulls advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs in both seasons, finishing as the national championship runnersup in 1986.

Rotellini returns to Salisbury State University from Shippensburg University, where he had been the assistant head football coach since 1987. He coordinated all administrative duties for the Red Raider football program in addition to his on-field coaching duties with the offensive line. SU was the Pennsylvania Conference's Western Division champion in 1988.

A native of McDonald, PA, Rotellini holds an associate degree from Anne Arundel Community College in Maryland, and received his Bachelor of Arts in physical education and health from Bethany (WV) College in 1977. He later earned his Master's of Education in administration and supervision from Loyola (MD) College in 1982.

Rotellini began his football coaching career at Anne Arundel CC as an assistant coach in 1978. He then moved on to Glen Burnie (MD) High School as an assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach from 1979-84.

In 1984, Rotellini joined the staff at Alfred University in New York, where he served as an assistant, coaching the defensive line. One year later, he returned to Maryland and began his first stint with the Sea Gulls. In his initial season at Salisbury, Rotellini coordinated a defense that was ranked 15th in the nation in rushing defense. The following year, with primary duties as offensive line coach, he helped the Gulls achieve national rankings of second in total offense, third in rushing offense and eighth in scoring offense.

While his coaching duties will now be limited to head coach for football only, Rotellini was also Salisbury State's head lacrosse coach in 1986 and 1987. He compiled an impressive 22-10 record in his two seasons, and led the Gulls to a sixth place national ranking and a berth in the NCAA Championship Tournament in 1986.

With numerous contacts throughout the state, an extensive resume of teaching and coaching, and an established reputation as a gifted recruiter of talent, Rotellini should once again establish Salisbury State University football as a strong contender for postseason competition.

"There's been a history of football success here at SSU," says Rotellini, "and with an excellent academic reputation, a beautiful campus and fine facilities, the gridiron future should once again be a very bright one."

Rotellini is a member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), and is a past president of the Anne Arundel County Coaches Association. He is also a frequent speaker at football clinics throughout the region, and serves as an instructor at several different football camps each summer.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Salisbury.

QUOTING COACH ROTELLINI

(On This Year's Team)

"We're very excited about this season. We've got a good staff with some great ideas, and the kids have worked very hard during the summer to become better football players. There's a great challenge before us, but both the coaches and the players are looking forward to the opportunities that await us."

(About the Schedule)

"I believe we've got one of the toughest, if not the toughest, Division III schedules in the country. The positive thing about that is we're going to see where we are on a national basis, and that will be a good barometer for us in our future plans as we rebuild this program."

(On Academics)

"One of the three primary commitments we demand from each of our players is for them to make a firm commitment to their academic progress each year. We expect them to go to class all of the time, to complete all of their assignments and to get involved with other co-curricular activities that are open to the general student body."

(About Recruiting)

"The number one goal we have is to find 'quality people.' We look for student-athletes who are committed to academics, who have good athletic skills and who are solid citizens. We want individuals who will represent Salisbury State University in a class manner, both on and off the football field."

(About Returning to SSU)

"I feel very fortunate to be able to return to the Salisbury area and specifically, Salisbury State University. The last three years at Shippensburg University represented a great learning experience, but I'm glad to be here now. SSU has certainly continued its sound academic and athletic development during the time I was away, and I'm excited about the things I see here. The Salisbury area has always been very supportive, we have good media coverage and exposure, and we have some real promising opportunities for community involvement."

(On the Complete College Experience)

"I encourage our players to get involved in any other campus activities that interest them. If a young man has the capabilities of playing another sport, or wants to be involved with the theatre group, or in other clubs, I hope that he would do so. We want a player to develop as a whole 'person.' A solid commitment to our football team and interests in outside activities are not mutually exclusive."
